

Quality Policy

The College of Applied Medical Sciences provides education, research, and community services. It works to improve them in accordance with the national and international standards, therefore emphasizing its excellence as well as supporting its strategic mission and objectives in order to achieve regional leadership and global excellence in the field.

To achieve the main objectives in our strategic plan 2017-2021, which are consistent with the university strategic plan KSU 2030 and are in line with the KSA 2030 vision; the college is committed to continuous development and improvement of academic programs and their outputs, supporting applied research and dissemination, providing of a distinct and stimulating work environment in concordance with enhancing the delivery of outstanding community services, and development of effective partnerships with various respectable educational organization and research centers both internally and externally.

The College of Applied Medical Sciences is committed to applying all legal and regulatory requirements, reviewing quality goals, academic, technical and administrative goals follow-up, and continuously improving the quality management system to ensure effective implementation in accordance with the requirements of ISO 9001:2015.

Dean of the College

Professor Dr. Yazeed Al-Alsheikh